

Summary

Survey of Publications

This book contains fourteen reviews dealing with different books, mostly related to Kurdish issues. Thirteen of them are previously unpublished.

The aim of this book is increase the knowledge of various topics among readers, dealing with visions and ideas of their writers, as well as the opinions of the author of this book, in order to acquaint readers with them, and to enrich the cultural library.

The author selects a number of books, however he does not classify them according to their expense. Some books are presented in detail, due to the specific nature of the Iraqi and Kurdish issues covered. He also mentions the place and time, in which the published subject appeared.

The author confirms that his reviews and opinions on subjects are his own reflections, and he may agree or not with this or that author in his opinions. He also hopes that he has selected useful boooks that can stimulate the readers to critically interact with their topics.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the Dean of the Faculty of Modern Languages and Literatures of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Prof. Dr. Aldona Sopata, for the financial support to publish this book. Many thanks also go to Prof. Dr. Hassan A. Jamsheer for his positive review of this book, Dr. Ashraf Benyamin for designing its cover, as well as Adam Mickiewicz University Press.
