

CONTENTS

---

PREFACE .....	13
CHAPTER 1. TRIBE AND TRIBALISM .....	19
1.1. Tribe .....	19
1.1.1. Key term of cultural anthropology .....	19
1.1.2. Etymology – definitions – distinctive features .....	20
1.1.3. Blood ties .....	24
1.1.3.1. Kinship – descent and social inheritance code .....	24
1.1.3.2. Kinship groups: family, lineage, extended family, tribe .....	27
1.1.3.3. Patterns of kinship (descent) .....	35
1.1.3.3.1. Patrilineality .....	36
1.1.3.3.2. Matrilineality .....	39
1.1.3.3.3. Mixed patterns .....	45
1.2. Tribalism (as an epistemological category) .....	49
1.2.1. The category of tribal society .....	49
1.2.2. Tribal versus peasant society .....	53
1.2.3. Tribalism and identity of closed societies .....	56
1.2.3.1. Substantial ties versus organic communities .....	56
1.2.3.2. Closed society and ethnocentrism .....	59
CHAPTER 2. ETHNICITY .....	61
2.1. We – our culture .....	61
2.2. Tribe and ethnicity – Europocentric perspective .....	62
2.3. Ethnic differences .....	64
2.4. Differentia specifica of African ethnicity .....	68
2.4.1. Ethnicity on the sidelines of African studies .....	68
2.4.2. Facets of ethnicity .....	69
2.4.3. Dispute over African ethnicity .....	71
2.4.4. Examples of African ethnicity .....	78
2.4.4.1. Daba – ethnic microgroups – sociétés englobée in practice .....	78
2.4.4.2. Fulbe – superethnicity sociétés englobantes .....	86
2.4.4.3. Mundang – an ethnic group as a supralocal community of blood and culture .....	96
2.5. If not ethnic groups, then what? .....	99
2.5.1. The social chain concept .....	99
2.5.2. Spaces of exchange .....	100

2.5.3.	Linguistic spaces .....	101
2.5.4.	Cultural spaces .....	103
2.5.5.	State, political and warring spaces .....	104
CHAPTER 3. STATELESS POLITICAL COMMUNITIES .....		106
3.1.	State versus tribe .....	106
3.1.1.	Politics with no statehood and power .....	108
3.1.2.	African studies and antiquity .....	108
3.2.	No statehood - what instead? .....	111
3.3.	Acephalous societies .....	114
3.3.1.	The concept .....	114
3.3.2.	Empirical expressions .....	116
3.3.2.1.	The hunter-gatherer Baka Pygmy .....	116
3.3.2.2.	The farming Daba .....	121
3.4.	Segmentary society .....	126
3.4.1.	The concept of segmentarism .....	126
3.4.2.	Lineage system of the pastoral Nuer .....	130
3.4.2.1.	Ideology or a political structure? .....	130
3.4.2.2.	Time and space adjustment .....	137
3.4.2.2.1.	Age groups .....	137
3.4.2.2.2.	Local communities - village and camp .....	140
3.4.3.	“Assorted” anarchy .....	143
3.4.3.1.	Extreme individualism versus communitarianism .....	143
3.4.3.2.	Dispersed authority .....	145
3.4.3.3.	Practising segmentation .....	148
CHAPTER 4. FROM CHIEFDOM TO STATEHOOD .....		159
4.1.	Dispute over origins and nature of the African state .....	159
4.1.1.	Tribal feudalism .....	159
4.1.2.	Beginnings of the state - the conquest, patronage, the economy .....	166
4.1.3.	Categories and terminology .....	171
4.2.	Exemplification .....	178
4.2.1.	Gudur chiefdom and its offshoots .....	178
4.2.2.	Fulbe lamidates - segmentary states on the divine path of Islam .....	187
4.2.3.	Buganda - a despotic state above tribal structures .....	194
CHAPTER 5. COLONIAL STATES AND SOCIETIES .....		205
5.1.	Specificity of colonialism in Africa .....	205
5.2.	Throwing the net .....	206
5.3.	Colonial discourse .....	209
5.3.1.	Formal and legal framework versus philosophy of colonialism .....	209
5.3.2.	Africa - the land of infancy of civilisation .....	213
5.4.	The subjects, the natives and the civilised .....	216
5.4.1.	Segregation .....	216
5.4.2.	Assimilation - oppression or acculturation? .....	222

5.4.3.	The indigenous class of middlemen . . . . .	224
5.4.3.1.	The court, the army and the school . . . . .	224
5.4.3.2.	Three biographies . . . . .	230
5.4.3.2.1.	Charles Atangana – first contact agent . . . . .	230
5.4.3.2.2.	Félix Houphouët-Boigny – the co-founder of Françafrique . . . . .	232
5.4.3.2.3.	Idi Amin Dada – indigenous roots of despotism . . . . .	235
5.5.	Colonial state in Africa – continuity versus creation . . . . .	238
5.5.1.	Colonial states in Africa – nature and origins . . . . .	238
5.5.2.	Models and strategies . . . . .	240
5.5.3.	Three case studies . . . . .	242
5.5.3.1.	Penetration and manipulation of indirect rule: Buganda – Uganda . . . . .	242
5.5.3.2.	Conquest and assimilation – direct rule in French West Africa . . . . .	246
5.5.3.3.	Durability of artificial creations – Cameroon carved out on the map . . . . .	251
CHAPTER 6. BUILDING POST-COLONIAL COMMUNITIES . . . . .		264
6.1.	Colonial state – what to replace it? . . . . .	264
6.2.	Community of race . . . . .	265
6.2.1.	Pan-Africanism . . . . .	265
6.2.2.	Négritude . . . . .	269
6.2.3.	Postnégritude . . . . .	272
6.3.	African nationalisms . . . . .	274
6.3.1.	For the nation to live, the tribe must die . . . . .	274
6.3.2.	Class, ethnos and race . . . . .	282
6.3.2.1.	Tribe versus class – Tanzania . . . . .	282
6.3.2.2.	Cameroon – a space of decreed ethnic balance . . . . .	289
6.3.2.3.	Hard road to “rainbow nation” in South Africa . . . . .	295
6.4.	Superethnic community . . . . .	303
6.4.1.	Panethnic movements and ideologies . . . . .	303
6.4.2.	Kirditude – Négritude in miniature . . . . .	305
6.4.3.	Arabs and non-Arabs in Darfur – in the shade of land conflict . . . . .	311
CHAPTER 7. THE REPORT OF TRIBE’S DEATH IS AN EXAGGERATION . . . . .		321
7.1.	The communitarian paradigm . . . . .	321
7.1.1.	Consensus once again, or enslavement by community . . . . .	321
7.1.2.	In search of Gemeinschaft . . . . .	323
7.2.	Detribalisation . . . . .	328
7.2.1.	Tribesman . . . . .	328
7.2.2.	New Africans . . . . .	329
7.2.3.	New phenomena: how to name and study them? . . . . .	332
7.2.4.	Criteria and typology . . . . .	333
7.3.	Tribalism (as an ethnopolitical category) . . . . .	335
7.3.1.	Living in a tribe . . . . .	335
7.3.2.	Dispute over sources of tribalism . . . . .	336
7.3.3.	Chieftains – the key institution of tribalism . . . . .	339
7.3.3.1.	Traditional or neotraditional authority? . . . . .	339

7.3.3.2.	Chieftain becomes an official .....	342
7.3.3.2.1.	Chieftains institutionalised .....	342
7.3.3.2.2.	Decentralised despotism .....	345
7.3.3.3.	“Right” and “wrong” tribalism .....	347
7.3.3.3.1.	Moral ethnicity .....	347
7.3.3.3.2.	Ethnic corporations .....	349
7.3.3.3.3.	Political tribalism .....	352
7.3.4.	Above and across the tribe .....	358
7.3.4.1.	Neighbours – community of faith .....	359
7.3.4.1.1.	Ethnocentrism of tribal religions .....	359
7.3.4.1.2.	Towards universal community .....	359
7.3.4.1.3.	The parish – local community of worshippers .....	364
7.3.4.2.	Towards Gesellschaft .....	367
7.3.4.2.1.	Civil society .....	369
7.3.4.2.2.	In the name of development and human rights .....	373
7.3.4.2.2.1.	Civic Movement .....	373
7.3.4.2.2.2.	Women versus patriarchal society .....	375
7.3.4.2.2.3.	Community protection of natural resources .....	379
	FINAL REMARKS .....	384
	BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	386
	INDEX: GEOGRAPHICAL AND ETHNIC NAMES .....	422
	LIST OF MAPS, FIGURES AND TABLES .....	430
	THE TRIBAL AND POST-TRIBAL AFRICA. CONCEPTIONS AND FIGURE OF THE COMMUNITY IN OLD AND CONTEMPORARY AFRICA (SUMMARY) ...	432