

CONTENTS

To the readers	13
-----------------------------	----

CULTURE AND MASS MEDIA STUDIES

Joanna Bobula The idea of active scenography in the works of Danylo Lider (1917–2002)	17
Oksana Pukhonska Person – Family – Nation. The problem of identity in Megan Buskey's book Ukraine is not dead yet: A family story about exile and return	31
Myroslava Rudyk Writers' blogs as a modern form of communication with readers	49
Lyudmyla Tarnashynska Culture as the antithesis of "world evil": transformation of challenges, questions, proposals	65

LITERARY STUDIES

Tetiana Belimova The discourse of identity in Yevhenia Kuznetsova's refugee novel The ladder	81
Olena Romanenko Diaries of the Russian-Ukrainian War: Autobiographical testimony, collective confession, memory media records	97
Yaroslav Polishchuk War poetry: Between testimony and generalized image	109
Antonina Tymchenko Maksym Kryvtsov's poetry: life against the war	127
Dzvenyslava Senyshyn The great noise by Ivan Franko vs The outpost by Bolesław Prus in the context of the confrontation between modernism and realism	137
Vira Prosalova, Yaroslava Hryhoshkina Self-presentation of a creative personality as a strategy of preserving Ukrainian identity in the foreign language world	147
About the authors	161