

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS .....	7
INTRODUCTION .....	11
Chapter I
CONTINUOUS OBLIGATION – THE ESSENCE OF THE CONSTRUCT .....	15
1. The significance of the element of time in civil law relationships .....	15
2. The concept of continuous obligation .....	19
2.1. Permanent legal relationships .....	19
2.2. Continuous obligation in the light of Polish doctrine and jurisprudence .....	24
2.3. The author’s stance on this issue .....	26
Chapter II
TYPES OF CONTINUOUS OBLIGATION .....	35
1. General comments .....	35
2. Continuous obligations of a self-executing (independent) nature .....	37
2.1. Self-executing continuous obligations resulting from the law .....	37
2.2. Self-executing continuous obligations resulting from legal acts .....	40
3. Non-self-executing continuous obligations .....	41
3.1. General remarks .....	41
3.2. Non-self-executing obligations in the law of obligations .....	45
3.3. Non-self-executing continuous obligations in other sections of civil law .....	48
Chapter III
THE DURATION OF CONTINUOUS OBLIGATIONS .....	55
1. The division of continuous obligations according to the criterion of duration .....	55
1.1. General remarks .....	55
1.2. Continuous obligations whose duration is determined in a direct manner .....	58

1.3. Continuous obligations whose duration is determined indirectly .....	68
1.4. The duration of continuous obligations – special cases .....	75
2. The period (time limit) and condition as events affecting the duration of a continuous obligation .....	87
Chapter IV
THE TERMINATION OF CONTINUOUS OBLIGATIONS .....	97
1. Characteristics of termination .....	97
1.1. General observations .....	97
1.2. Subjects with the right to terminate .....	102
1.3. The legal basis for termination .....	105
1.4. The content of a declaration of intent to terminate .....	111
1.5. The effect of termination .....	117
1.6. The non-self-executing nature of termination .....	120
1.7. The invalidity of termination .....	121
1.8. Termination as an abuse of right .....	126
1.9. Waiving the right to terminate .....	128
2. The function of Article 365 <sup>1</sup> of the CC .....	129
BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	137